

INTERIM STUDY PROPOSAL 2025-049

REQUESTING THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION CONDUCT A STUDY OF THE COSTS AND STUDENT OUTCOMES RELATED TO REMOTE LEARNING IN HIGHER EDUCATION.

WHEREAS, many institutions of higher education across the country have been shifting to more remote learning opportunities; and

WHEREAS, this increase in remote learning brings a changing landscape to higher education, including changes in costs to both students and staff;
and

WHEREAS, further study of the impact on costs to both students and faculty and the impact on student outcomes needs to be completed in order to truly understand the implications of the shift to more remote learning in higher education,

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT PROPOSED BY THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION OF THE NINETY-FIFTH
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

THAT the Senate Committee on Education conduct a study of the costs and student outcomes related to remote learning in higher education.

Respectfully submitted,

Senator Dan Sullivan

District 20
