Children/Staff in the foster care system each year

Children of incarcerated parents

According to a study done in 2015-16, 16 percent of children in Arkansas had at some point in their lives a parent or guardian locked up in prison or jail. That was the highest percentage of any state. Some nearby states also had similar percentages. The report by the Annie E. Casey Foundation followed a similar study done in 2011-12.

Children in Foster Care, Sebastian County

*The chart above displays the number of children in foster care as of the first day of each month, beginning January 1, 2017.

To address this factor, Restore Hope and Harbor House partnered so that Recovery Coaches would be available in Parole/Probation offices to meet with those returning to their communities.

To address this factor, the Omega focus group developed a mutually beneficial process to help parolees resolve outstanding court obligations (warrants, fines, DL suspensions).

AS OF JUNE 30,
63 CASES: 31 IN-HOME,
32 REMOVALS
