Subtitle

TO AMEND THE CHILD LABOR LAWS ENACTED BY
INITIATED ACT 1 OF 1914; TO ESTABLISH AN EDUCATIONAL ALTERNATIVE TO CIVIL
PENALTIES FOR CERTAIN VIOLATIONS; AND TO CREATE EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS RELATED TO CHILD LABOR.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. DO NOT CODIFY. Legislative findings.

The General Assembly finds that:

(1) Part-time work by teenagers teaches important lessons in personal finance, time management, and confidence and allows for important networking and career exploration opportunities;

(2) However, the state has a responsibility to protect children from hazardous work environments and ensure that employment opportunities do

1 not come at the expense of a teenager's education;

2 (3) The Department of Labor and Licensing identified that, from 3 2020 to 2023, child labor violations increased by two hundred sixty-six
4 percent (266%) and financial penalties for child labor violations increased
5 by six hundred percent (600%) for the same time;

6 (4) When compared to surrounding states, Arkansas has some of 7 the highest numbers of child labor cases investigated and child labor
8 violations, as well as financial penalties assigned, according to data from 9 the United States Department of Labor Wage and Hour Division; and

10 (5) It is crucial for teenagers who are employed, as well as 11 employers and parents, to understand legal requirements and regulations as it
12 relates to allowable working hours and places of employment for children
13 under the age of sixteen (16).

14
15 SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 11-6-103(a)(1), concerning the civil penalty
16 related to child labor violations as enacted by Initiated Act 1 of 1914, is 17 amended to read as follows:

18 (a)(1)(A) Any person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, 19 parent, guardian, or custodian who employs or permits or suffers any child to 20 be employed or to work in violation of this subchapter or §§ 11-12-101 – 11-
21 12-105, or any rules issued thereunder, shall be subject to a civil penalty
22 of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than five thousand 23 dollars ($5,000) for each violation.

24 (B) A civil penalty under subdivision (a)(1)(A) of this 25 section may be waived for a first-time violation if the person, firm,
26 corporation, partnership, association, parent, guardian, or custodian subject
27 to the civil penalty completes an educational module developed by the
