SECTION 2. In the event the Arkansas General Assembly establishes a uniform procedure for civil practice in the municipal courts of Arkansas and therein establishes a "Municipal Court Cost Fund" to be used exclusively for the operation and expenses of the municipal court, any municipal court judge's, clerk's, or other employee's salary authorized by this Act may be increased from the minimum salary upward to any amount not exceeding the maximum salary authorized herein and may be paid from such fund as set forth hereafter. On and after July 1, 1987, the city council or the county quorum court, or both, if authorized, of the local government jurisdictions responsible for paying the salaries of the municipal court judge, clerks, and other employees may authorize salary increases for the various court personnel as authorized above after considering the following factors:

- (1) the amount and availability of funds in the "Municipal Court Cost Fund";
- (2) the volume of caseload;
- (3) the backlog of cases, if any, on the court docket;
- (4) the time required in dealing with cases;
- (5) the skill required in dealing with cases; and
- (6) the amount of time taken away from the judge's private practice, if applicable.

SECTION 3. Act 955 of 1985 is hereby repealed. All other laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. Except as otherwise provided in any subsection of Section 1 hereof, the provisions of this Act and the salaries prescribed herein shall be retroactive to January 1, 1987.

SECTION 5. EMERGENCY. It is hereby found and determined by the General Assembly that the salaries currently prescribed by law for judges of the various municipal courts in the State are inadequate to compensate the judges of such courts for their services; that the effective and efficient operation of the municipal courts in the State are essential to the administration of justice and that this Act is necessary to assure the effective and efficient operation of such courts and should be given effect immediately. Therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this Act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval.
