20

21 SECTION 1. Arkansas Code 9-12-309(a), concerning the awarding of fees
22 in divorce actions, is amended to read as follows:

23 (a) (1) During the pendency of an action for divorce, whether absolute 24 or from bed and board, separate maintenance, or alimony, the court may allow 25 to the wife or to the husband maintenance, ~~and~~ a reasonable fee for her or his 26 attorneys, and expert witness fees, and enforce the payment of the allowance 27 by orders and executions and proceedings as in cases of contempt.

28 (2) In the final decree of an action for absolute divorce, the 29 court may award the wife or husband costs of court, a reasonable attorney's 30 fee, and expert witness fees.

31 (3) The court may immediately reduce the sums so ordered to 32 judgment and allow the party to execute upon the marital property for the 33 payment of the allowance except that the homestead shall not be executed upon 34 for the payment of the sums so ordered.
