4
5 SECTION 5. Arkansas Code § 17-81-107, concerning the use of a procurer
6 by a chiropractic physician, is amended to add additional subsections to read 7 as follows:

8 (i) A chiropractic physician, including his or her employee, agent, 9 independent contractor, or procurer, shall not solicit an individual who has 10 been involved in an accident, disaster, or other event that causes injury for 11 the purpose of treating injuries that the individual sustained or may have 12 sustained in the accident, disaster, or other event unless:

13 (1) The chiropractic physician has a family or prior 14 professional relationship with the individual; or

15 (2) The chiropractic physician solicits the individual more than 16 fourteen (14) days after the date of the motor vehicle accident.

17 (j) A chiropractic physician shall have solicited services if the 18 chiropractic physician performs services on an individual who is referred by:

19 (1) A procurer registered under this section of the chiropractic 20 physician; or

21 (2) Any person who receives compensation from the chiropractic
22 physician in consideration of referrals, regardless of the relationship 23 between the referring person and chiropractic physician.

24 (k) Direct solicitation of a person who is under eighteen (18) years 25 of age is prohibited.

26 (l) A chiropractic physician is liable for any representation made by 27 a procurer soliciting services on behalf of the chiropractic physician, 28 regardless of the existence of any written contract between the chiropractor 29 and a procurer, if:

30 (1) The chiropractic physician provides or has provided 31 compensation to the procurer for referrals; and

32 (2) A reasonable expectation exists that the procurer will be 33 compensated for referring individuals to the chiropractic physician.

34 (m) Solicitation conducted by a procurer shall not:

35 (1) Initiate from a telephone number other than the telephone
36 number registered with the board;

1 (2) Falsely state, imply, or otherwise communicate that:

2 (A) He or she has an affiliation with an insurance company
3 unless he or she is an authorized representative of an insurance company;

4 (B) Payment of an insurance claim or insurance coverage
5 will be available or otherwise affected by the individual's willingness to 6 see a specific chiropractic physician or healthcare provider;

7 (C) The Attorney General's Office, the board, or any other 8 regulatory or governmental agency has approved or is otherwise affiliated 9 with the procurer; or

10 (D) A specific medical facility is a preferred medical 11 clinic or in-network provider for any purpose;

12 (3) Offer or give anything of value or promise payment or gifts
13 of any kind in connection with a solicitation contact;

14 (4) Use a false name or identity during the solicitation;

15 (5) Provide or promise to provide a prescription or 16 nonprescription medication or medical supplies unless he or she is authorized 17 to prescribe and treat according to state law; or

18 (6) Make any other statement that is deceptive or misleading
19 within the context of a solicitation.

20 (n) This section does not prohibit:

21 (1) Solicitation by targeted direct-mail advertising or other 22 forms of written, radio, or television advertising, if the advertising does 23 not involve coercion, duress, or harassment and is not false, deceptive, or 24 misleading; or

25 (2) Advertisement of a chiropractic physician's services by 26 website or any social media account if the chiropractic physician does not 27 use the website or social media account to solicit an individual in violation 28 of subdivision (i) of this section.
