33 without limitation evaluations, diagnoses, prognoses, laboratory reports, X-34 rays, prescriptions, and other technical information used in assessing the 36 specific condition or a summary of the record; and

1 (3) "Patient" means a person who has received healthcare
2 services from a healthcare provider.

3 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, a 4 healthcare provider may, in its sole discretion, create, maintain, transmit,

6 sole discretion, temporarily or permanently convert records into an 7 electronic format.

8 (c)(1) A healthcare provider is not required to maintain separate

20 a request for a copy of a medical record from a patient or an authorized 21 person, a healthcare provider shall provide copies of the medical record in 22 either tangible or electronically stored form.

23 (2) Except as provided otherwise under federal law, if a
