Thank you all very much for your trust in me, your confidence in my vision and your support by your confirmation vote for me to serve as your Speaker of the House for the 95th General Assembly.

I am grateful to each of you for your commitment to service, the sacrifices you are about to make, and the dedication you've shown to improving the lives of those we serve.

Sacrifice over self. That is something that I trust you are committed to. But members, we are not alone in this journey.

I want to recognize my amazing family members that are here today that have each sacrificed in their own way for me to be here and fulfill my duties leading this body. Represented here are my biggest fans and the love, support and encouragement they provide to me is invaluable.

I also recognize my team back in Cabot at my office that show up every day and take great care of our very valuable clients. They are an incredible team and we are thankful for the sacrifices that they make for me and my family.

Reflecting on my journey, I realize that pivotal moments often stem from seemingly small decisions. Two such moments stand out to me.

In the Spring of 1983, I made the decision to accept an invitation to come to this Chamber and serve as a page. I clearly remember interacting with members with names such as, Murphy, George, McQuiston, Cunningham, Maddox, Langster, Hawkins and Mullenix. Pioneers of policy, statesmen that made a lasting impact on me due to me making that one decision in time, a day coming to serve as a page. A day I will never forget.

Two years later, I chose to accept an invitation to serve as a delegate at Arkansas Boys State. This was a week spent learning about servitude, statesmanship, civic duty and accountability. It gave me an opportunity to see close and up front how government worked from the local to the state level. The week was highlighted by a moving and inspirational speech by former Gov. Mike Huckabee. That week and his words changed my life forever. It was a lasting impact on me due to me making that one decision in time, going to Boys State. A week I will never forget.

There have been countless events and experiences of witnessing sacrifice over self that have impacted and shaped me and hopefully prepared me for this moment.

Over the course of my life, I have listened to thousands of sermons. From the regular Sunday morning, Sunday evening and Wednesday night services, to youth rallies, revivals and radio broadcasts. I have heard some of the most dynamic and powerful messages delivered.

About 20 years ago, I was in attendance for a sermon that made a tremendous impact upon my life. I believe it set a pathway for my time in public service. I carry the verses from that sermon in my heart and mind every day. Verses of a moment in time where a sacrifice over self was inscribed in the Gospel. I know several of you have a Bible or New Testament on your desks or probably have a Bible app on your phone. I would invite you to join me in the reading from the Gospel of Mark. Mark chapter 14...we will begin with verse 3.

READ MARK 14: 3-9

In this account of this selfless sacrifice, I don't think it was a mistake that there was no mention of this woman's name. Who she was, where she came from, who her family was, where she worked or how much she had was not important.

What we do know is that she came of her own freewill and provided a selfless sacrifice, a sacrifice over self by breaking her alabaster box and anointing HIM with a very expensive fragrance.

She didn't do this for a headline, she didn't do it for attention, she did it selflessly as a sacrifice for which she asked for nothing in return. Quite simply, she broke her box.

Secondly, we know that those in observance were angry and murmured about what could have been done by her with this expensive ointment. But HE said, you each have had an opportunity to provide for those of which you murmur and never do it. Do not chastise this one for the sacrifice of which she is making for she was doing a good work.

Finally, HE said that whenever this story is told, let it be told as a memorial (a remembrance of a good work) to her.

Now you may be thinking what does this have to do with me and the 95th General Assembly. I say it has everything to do with us and one of my many prayers over this body.

I ask you to join me in a commitment of freewill sacrifice, selfless sacrifice of service. A service where we won't be working to seek a headline, a service where we praise those to who make a great sacrifice on our behalf and the benefit of their constituents and that sometime in history when someone else is standing in this chamber, they will reflect upon our time here and that our service to our constituents and the Great State of Arkansas will be a service as a memorial to those that we serve.

We all need to "break our box" and pour our time into the greater good of all those that we serve.

Earlier, I mentioned my incredible family members that are here and I am thankful they could be here today. However, there is someone that I want to tell you about that couldn't be here today.

You see, back in 1983, my father drove me here on the day that I served as a page. While heading back home, he asked if I thought that serving in the House was something I could ever see myself doing.

Over the years, he would occasionally ask me that again and again. "Brian, do you ever think you would like to serve in the AR House of Representatives?" I would always say, YES, and he would say, "if you ever get there, there is something that I want to ask you to do for me"

He was overjoyed when I shared with him in 2017 that I would be announcing in 2018 to make a run for a House seat. Throughout the campaign, he kept asking if I was really going to get this honor. He would say, “remember I want that favor, if you ever get there”.

After winning my primary in 2018 and not having an opponent in the General he would ask me over and over if I was really going to be here.

You see, early onset dementia had set in and it wasn’t unusual for him to ask me the same thing on a regular daily basis. Yes sir, I am really going to be there in January of 2019.

Sadly, he passed away in October of 2018...never getting to ask me for that favor. I’ve thought a lot since that time what he might have wanted. I think I know. As a pastor and evangelist for over 50 years he fully understood sacrifice over self. He would have considered it a high honor to have been able to offer the opening prayer on a day while we were in session.

If you will rise and join me, I am going to try and offer that same prayer over this body that I believe he would have given today.

PRAY OVER BODY –

Great sacrifice is often the foundation of great achievement. Rarely has progress been made without it. As we begin this work, may we remember the call to serve selflessly, lead with integrity and to honor the trust placed in us by the people of Arkansas.

God bless each of you, your families, your work back home. God bless this body, the 95th General Assembly and God bless the great state of Arkansas.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1001

BY: REPRESENTATIVE EVANS

HOUSE RESOLUTION

TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF
REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FIFTH
GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Subtitle

TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF
THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. The Rules of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-Fifth General Assembly of the State of Arkansas are adopted to read as follows:

MEMBERS

1. Every representative shall be present within the House during the session of the House and every member shall be present at each committee meeting of which he or she is a member, unless excused or necessarily prevented. It is the policy of the Arkansas General Assembly, as a term-limited body, to encourage legislators to learn as much as possible by attending meetings of committees of which they are not a member. Prior signed and documented approval must be obtained from the chairperson of a committee for a visiting non-committee member to enjoy certain privileges offered to regular members.

2. For the purpose of seating in the House Chamber for an upcoming regular session of the General Assembly, the Speaker of the House, following the November General Election, shall declare all House Chamber seats vacant and representatives and representatives-elect must select in the order of their seniority any seat not occupied after notification by the Chief Clerk of available seats. Absence or failure to select a seat at the assigned selection time will automatically allow the Speaker to assign the member to his or her same seat if it is available or the member or member-elect to a seat selected by the Speaker. The Chief Clerk shall furnish voting machine and desk keys.

3. When it is necessary for seniority of incoming members to be determined by lot, the Speaker of the House and the Speaker-designate of the House shall conduct a drawing by lots upon receiving certification from the Secretary of State of the election of membership to each General Assembly. Qualified and certified persons to be seated and officially receive the oath of office may do so only at a time and place prescribed by the House. No person having resigned from public office as a provision to a plea agreement to avoid felony prosecution shall be seated or administered the oath of office. Incoming members with previous legislative tenure shall be placed highest in seniority among the incoming members based upon previous terms of service. Where an equivalence of full terms of service exists, seniority for those with equal terms shall be asserted by drawing lots to determine their numerical standing.

4. A majority of all representatives elected to the House shall be necessary to transact business. When less than a quorum of House members shall assemble, those present shall be authorized to send for the absent representatives or adjourn. Penalties may be decided by a majority of the representatives present. (Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 11)

5. Each representative is expected to vote on each question put before the House unless he or she has an immediate personal interest.

6. Any representative shall have the right to explain his/her vote on any bill or other question before the House, in writing. Such explanation shall not be entered upon the Journal, but shall be filed with the Chief Clerk.

7. Every bill or resolution in the possession of the House or of any committee thereof shall be made available to any member for his/her examination.

8. No member at any time shall take from the House or any committee any bill or other paper belonging to the House, without consent of the Speaker, subject to the will of the House.

9. It shall be the duty of each representative to know, practice and preserve Parliamentary Law.

THE SPEAKER

10. Selection.

10.(a) As used in this rule, the term "Speaker-designate" shall mean the member of the House of Representatives selected by the House of Representatives of each General Assembly held preceding the convening of the next-following regular session of the General Assembly, in the following manner:

10.(a)(1) A caucus of the entire House of Representatives shall be held fifteen

(15) minutes following sine die adjournment of the fiscal session held in each even-numbered year, at which time the members of the House shall select by secret ballot a member of the House to be known as the Speaker-designate. Each candidate for Speaker-designate shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes to address the House before the ballot is taken. All members are required to be present for the addresses and for the election. In the event a member is unable to attend, absentee ballots may be requested by a member for himself/herself from the Speaker's Office no sooner than twenty (20) calendar days prior to the scheduled election and must be completed and returned to the Speaker's Office no later than four p.m. (4:00 p.m.) the day before the scheduled election. It is the intent of the Speaker's office to accommodate any and all members for Speaker-designate voting, should a member have a documented emergency arise, the Speaker may direct staff to allow for absentee voting up to two (2) hours prior to the scheduled election. Leave for absence shall be requested immediately before the time of the election. The Speaker shall announce the name and number of votes received by the candidate who received at least a majority of the votes of the membership of the House. Each candidate shall be entitled to verify the number of votes he or she received.

10.(a)(2) The candidate receiving a majority vote of the membership of the House of Representatives shall be declared the winner of such election for Speaker-designate of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly.

10.(a)(3) If no candidate receives a majority vote of the membership of the House of Representatives, the names of the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be placed on a run-off ballot and distributed among the membership of the House of Representatives in the same manner provided above.

10.(a)(4) If it is determined that the Speaker-designate will not serve as a member of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly due to death, resignation, or failure to be a candidate for or to win reelection, a vacancy in the position of Speaker-designate shall exist and be filled at the caucus of the entire House of Representatives-elect held on the Friday of the week designated for the biennial Institute of Legislative Procedure (House Legislative Orientation), and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be elected upon convening of the next regular session.

10.(a)(5) It is the intent of this subsection that the Speaker-designate be the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly, subject to selection by the membership of the House upon convening of the regular session.

10.(a)(6) Petitions seeking pledge signatures of members of the House of Representatives for a particular candidate seeking selection as Speaker-designate

11.(i) State the question to the House before each vote is taken;

The Speaker Pro Tempore shall serve during the absences of the Speaker and shall perform the Speaker's duties. 17.(i) The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House are authorized, subject to approval by the appropriate designated committee, to correct obvious errors occurring in documents originating in the House and the Senate respectively, provided that each such correction is noted on the bill jacket and is documented by a "correction note" at the end of the official daily Journal for the date on which the correction was made.

PARLIAMENTARIAN

18. The duties of the Parliamentarian shall be to:

18.(a) Convene the first session of the House at the time prescribed by law. The Parliamentarian shall call the members to order, call the roll, preserve order and decorum, and decide all questions of order subject to appeal by any representative pending the election of the Speaker. The Parliamentarian of the previous House shall serve as the official Parliamentarian until the appointment of a new Parliamentarian. 18.(i) Have an adequate knowledge of Parliamentary Law and the Rules of the Arkansas House of Representatives.

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE

19. When a question is under debate, motions shall have precedence in the following order (the request for a quorum call is always in order; the Chairperson is not compelled to accept any motion):

19.(a) To fix the time to which the House will adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(a)(1) (A majority of a quorum is a majority of those voting when at least a majority of the members are present and voting;)

19.(b) To adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(c) To take a recess (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(d) Postpone temporarily; lay on the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum) To take from the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum) (when the motion to take from the table is adopted, the proposition takes the same position it held when the motion to lay on the table was adopted);

- 19.(e) Immediate consideration (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);
- 19.(f) Previous question (non-debatable) (5 seconds) (majority of a quorum);
- 19.(g) Limit or extend debate (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);
- 19.(h) To expunge (debatable) (2/3 of membership) (67);
- 19.(i) Postpone to a day certain (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
- 19.(j) Committee of the Whole, go into (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);
- 19.(k) Refer (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
- 19.(l) Amend (debatable) (majority of a quorum);
- 19.(m) Postpone indefinitely (debatable) (majority of membership);
- 19.(n) Take out of proper order (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);
- 19.(o) Special order of business (debatable) (2/3 of a quorum); and
- 19.(p) To suspend the rules (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum).

20. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, except when the previous question has been ordered.

21. The motion to recess, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, must specify the time which shall elapse and the time for reconvening. It may be amended to alter specific time.

22. Previous question:

22.(a) When any debatable question is before the House, any member may move the previous question. It shall be seconded by five (5) members whether the question shall be stated. When the previous question shall have been adopted, the proponents shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes in which to debate it, and the opponents of the main question shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes, after which time a vote upon the main question shall be taken.

22.(b) Pending a vote on the main question, one (1) motion to refer is permitted. A motion to refer under this rule applies to House resolutions as well as to House bills, to Senate bills and to Senate amendments to a House bill, and to a motion to amend the Journal. The motion to refer under this rule is non-debatable and may not be laid upon the table.

23. A motion to postpone to a day certain may not specify the hour; a special order is necessary to specify the hour; the motion may be amended and it is debatable within narrow limits only, confined to the merit of the motion itself.

24. The simple motion to refer is debatable within its narrow limits, but the merits of the proposition to which it is proposed to refer may not be brought into the debate. The motion to refer with instructions is debatable (majority vote of a quorum). When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill to committee, if the

Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill to a committee, the bill may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill to committee, the bill may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill.

24.(a) When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

25. The motion to postpone indefinitely opens to debate all the merits of the proposition to which it is applied. It may not be applied to the motion to refer, or to suspend the rules, or to motions relating to the order of business.

25.(a) The motion for indefinite postponement and possible consideration by a joint interim committee shall be as follows: "Mr. Speaker, I move that consideration of _____ be postponed indefinitely and that consideration be given by the joint interim committee on _____ for a study of _____." (majority of membership).

26. The motion to limit or extend debate must specify time limitations. A substitute motion specifying a lesser time may be accepted.

27. Reconsideration:

27.(a) When a proposition has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member of the majority on the same or succeeding legislative day to move for the reconsideration thereof, or give notice of his or her intentions to do so and such motion shall take precedence over other questions except consideration of a conference report or a motion to adjourn: Provided, the motion or proposition shall only be considered during the period reserved for regular bills. The notice shall not be withdrawn after the said succeeding legislative day without the consent of the House, and thereafter any member may call it up for consideration: Provided, the notice to reconsider must be disposed of within three (3) legislative days following the day the vote was taken; provided, that such notice to reconsider cannot be given after the 57th day of a regular session or during a special session or fiscal session during which times a motion to reconsider must be disposed of immediately.

27.(b) The provisions of the rule that the motion may be made "by any member of the majority" is construed, in case of a tie, to mean the member of the prevailing side, and the same construction applies in the case of a two-thirds (2/3) vote. Where the yeas and nays have not been ordered recorded in the Journal, any member, irrespective of whether he or she voted with the majority or not, may make the motion to reconsider or give notice thereof; but a member who was absent or who was paired in favor of the majority contention and did not vote may not make a motion.

27.(c) A bill in the possession of the House is not considered passed or an amendment agreed to if a motion to reconsider is pending; the effect of the motion being to suspend the original proposition. A notice or motion to reconsider shall not be allowed unless the bill is in the House. A bill shall not leave the House once notice of reconsideration is given. When the motion to reconsider is decided in the affirmative, the question immediately recurs on the motion reconsidered. However, prior to consideration of the question at hand, the Speaker shall have the title, expressing the main contents of the proposition being reconsidered, read to the House. When the motion to reconsider is defeated, a second motion to reconsider may not be made.

27.(d) The motion to reconsider is agreed to by a majority of a quorum, even though the vote reconsidered requires a majority or more of the membership. Upon reconsideration when a proposition has been voted twice and either carried or lost it is considered "Clinched".

27.(e) A notice to reconsider is not debatable. A motion to reconsider is debatable when the item to which it applies is debatable.

27.(f) No bill, petition, memorial, or resolution referred to a committee or reported there-from for recommitment shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider.

27.(g) The "Clincher" motion is two (2) motions in one (1); it is a motion to reconsider and to lay on the table. Having prevailed, the proposition shall not be again considered except by expunging the record. The "Clincher" motion is adopted by a majority of the membership. The Speaker shall accept a "Sound the Ballot" request after the "Clincher" has been adopted and before the next order of business is called.

27.(h) No "Clincher" motion shall be entertained on a bill passed during the morning hour or which has been represented to be non-controversial regardless of when passed. Prior to the 60th day of a session, no bill passed during the morning hour, or a bill appearing on the non-controversial bill calendar which has passed, shall be transmitted to the Senate until the expiration of the morning hour of the day next following its passage in which the House is in session.

28. No dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Speaker.

29. Two-thirds (2/3) of a quorum may suspend the rules, other than rules that require a two-thirds (2/3) or three-fourths (3/4) vote of the membership. Rule 12 of the Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives - Suspension of Joint Rules

30. No standing rule or order shall be revised without one (1) day's notice being given thereof.

31. In every case not provided for in the House rules, the Speaker, the Parliamentarian, and the members shall be guided by Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure. Each member of the Rules Committee may be furnished a copy of the current edition and of each new or revised edition of Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure and additional copies may be available to other members from the Parliamentarian, upon approval of the Rules Committee.

14) (House Rule 47(a)) When a bill or resolution is under consideration, amendments shall be in order. Upon adoption, amendments shall become a part of the bill or resolution. Amendments to amendments may not be offered. All amendments offered before the House or one of its committees must be typewritten on an approved amendment form and signed by the sponsor. All amendments shall be attached to the original bill or resolution, numbered by the Bill Clerk, and shall be placed upon the members' desks before being acted upon by the House.

(House Rule 38(e)) All amendments shall be entered on a separate sheet of paper noting the line or lines to be changed and the words to be deleted or inserted.

15) (House Rule 68) No bill or resolution shall be introduced with a committee as the author of said bill or resolution unless that committee has voted unanimously to sponsor the bill or resolution.

16) (House Rule 69) Committee Records and Reports

69(a) The chairperson of each committee of the House shall keep or cause to be kept a separate record for each committee meeting in which there shall be entered:

- (1) The time and place of each hearing and each meeting of the committee.
- (2) The number and title of the bill or resolution with one of the following three recommendations: "do pass", "do pass as amended", or "do not pass". If a committee recommends a bill or resolution "do pass as amended" and any of the amendments recommended by the committee are not adopted on the floor, the bill or resolution shall be re-referred to the same committee for further consideration and recommendation.
- (3) A summary of each bill or resolution's major provisions which may be several paragraphs in length in case of major bills or resolutions or simply the title of the bill or resolution in the case of minor bills or resolutions.
- (4) The reason for the committee's action on the bill or resolution, including a brief minority report, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

(5) A record of how every member voted on each bill or resolution when action is taken by the committee, including votes on a motion to postpone consideration on the bill or resolution and a recorded vote on any other motion, if requested by any two (2) committee members.

(6) A list of all people testifying before a committee on each bill or resolution, the interest that they represent, and an indication of their position on the bill or resolution.

17) (House Rule 69(b)) Such records for each separate committee meeting shall be approved by the chairperson before the expiration of a seven (7) day period, with the exception of those records referred to in (a)(1) and (2), hereinabove which shall be filed immediately with the Clerk of the House.

18) (House Rule 24 part) When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill or resolution to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill or resolution to a committee, the bill or resolution may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill or resolution to committee, the bill or resolution may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill or resolution is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill or resolution. When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

19) (House Rule 55 (a)) House Committee Staff will automatically and without delay place all bills or resolutions referred to the committees on the committee agendas. Staff will notify the sponsor of bills or resolutions assigned to committee. Referred bills shall be placed on the committee's active agenda in the order they are read across the desk on the House Floor. A bill shall not be placed on a committee agenda until the second calendar day following the initial filing of the bill. When an active agenda is established in a committee and bills from that agenda are not placed on the deferred list and if the bills are passed over, they are placed at the bottom of the list of the day's active agenda.

20) After a bill or resolution has appeared on the committee agenda and has been called up for consideration by the committee and the sponsor of the bill or resolution or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution, the bill or resolution will be placed on the active agenda two (2) additional times, but will be placed at the bottom of the active agenda.

21) The sponsor may request a bill or resolution be moved to a deferred list of bills and resolutions. A bill or resolution passed over after appearing on three (3) committee agendas shall be moved to the deferred list. Sponsor requests to move bills or resolutions from the deferred list to the active agenda must be made by 2:30 p.m. two (2) days prior to the scheduled committee meeting. Bills or resolutions moved from the deferred list to the active agenda shall be listed at the bottom of the active agenda. Bills or resolutions on the deferred list may be moved to the active calendar as provided by rule for a total of three (3) times only. A suspension of this rule by the committee (two-thirds of a quorum) will be required for each transfer of any bill or resolution having been moved three (3) times previously.

22) Bills or resolutions suggested as non-controversial will be considered before consideration of controversial bills or resolutions on the agenda. The objection of one (1) committee member to the consideration of a bill or resolution as non-controversial will automatically keep the bill or resolution from being considered as being non-controversial. Even though a bill or resolution has been considered as non-controversial, it will be necessary after a "do pass" or "do pass as amended" recommendation that a motion be made and there be unanimous consent of no less than a quorum of the committee for a bill or resolution to be eligible to be placed on the House non-controversial calendar.

23) If a bill or resolution is discussed by a committee at a meeting, but is not voted on because of time limitations or because the vote is deferred to the next meeting, the bill or resolution will not lose its order on the agenda and will not be counted as having been considered.

24) The author/sponsor of a bill or resolution may make a presentation for his or her bill or resolution and may elect at that time to respond to questions from the committee members. Following the initial presentation, non-legislative---non-committee members will be allowed to alternately speak against and for the bill or resolution. A procedural motion made by a member of the committee and adopted by the committee to limit or end debate will be allowed to govern non-legislative--non-committee members' discussions. At the conclusion of the non-legislative--non-committee member proponent and opponent presentations, the sponsor may return to the podium and may elect to field questions from the committee members. Those questions should be limited to requests for clarification or the securing of information. Questions that are rhetorically offered and are dilatory for the effect of debate are discouraged. At this point, the chair will entertain motions from committee members only. For disposition of a proposition in a House Committee, procedural motions (limit debate, immediate consideration, etc.) are allowed only following a main motion (do pass, do not pass, do pass as amended, etc.). Discussion from that point forward is limited to committee members for and against the motion, if debatable, in alternating fashion. If immediate consideration is not adopted and if debate has not been limited and time has not expired, the sponsor of the motion will be allowed to close for his or her motion. During the closing, the sponsor of the motion may elect to field questions from committee members. At the conclusion of these presentations, a vote will be taken on the motion properly before the committee.

25) As determined by the presider courtesy may be extended to General Assembly members who are non-committee members who need to return to their own committee meetings.

26) (House Rule 66) Eleven (11) members of a standing committee constitute a committee quorum with the Speaker present if he or she is a member of the committee and ten (10) members when the Speaker is not present. A committee recommendation of a bill or resolution will require these same numbers.

27) Smoking is prohibited in the committee rooms and all adjoining rooms.

28) (House Rule 69(a)(5)) A roll call vote will be required if requested by any two (2) committee members, except for a quorum call which may be requested by one (1) member. The request for a quorum call is always in order.

29) When a roll call is required, the roll will be called by seniority with the vice chairperson being called next to last and the chairperson last. For a member's vote to be counted and recorded, he or she must vote "yes", "no" or "present".

30) During a roll call vote, when a member's name has been called twice and he or she does not respond, or when a member passes, they will not be allowed to vote at a later time on the current issue before the committee.

31) No seconds are required during the legislative process except those that are explicit in the rules, (roll call, previous question, sound the ballot, etc.)

32) (House Rule 38(r)) "Fiscal impact statement" means a realistic statement of the estimated financial cost of implementing or complying with a proposed law regarding:

- (1) Municipalities;
- (2) Counties;
- (3) Education, as related to the State of Arkansas and local school districts grades kindergarten through twelve (K-12);
- (4) Corrections, if imposing new or additional costs and restrictions on inmate population patterns or affecting programs or services of the Department of Correction;
- (5) Lottery, if amending Arkansas Code, Title 23, Chapter 115, or imposing a new or increased cost to the Office of the Arkansas Lottery or a lottery;
- (6) ~~Health benefit plans, if imposing a new or increased cost obligation for health benefit plans, including pharmacy benefits, on an entity of the state~~ Imposing a new or increased cost on the State and Public School Life and Health Insurance Program; or
- (7) New or existing scholarships to be funded with net proceeds from the state lottery or the Higher Education Grants Fund Account, as applicable.

33) (House Rule 38(s)) When any House or Senate bill or resolution requiring an expenditure of public funds or otherwise imposing a new or increased cost obligation is pending before any committee of the House of Representatives, any member of the committee may request that a fiscal impact statement for such bill or resolution be placed on the desk of each member of the committee before the bill or resolution is called up for final action in the committee. If such request is made, the chairperson of the committee shall refer the bill or resolution to the appropriate state agency or to the legislative staff for the preparation of a fiscal impact statement, to be returned to the committee in writing not later than five (5) days from the date of the request.

34) (House Rule 38(u)) Fiscal impact statements shall be made available to House Committees:

- (1) At least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for final action in the House Committee during a regular legislative session or fiscal session of the General Assembly; and
- (2) At least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for final action in the House Committee during a special session of the General Assembly.

Fiscal impact statements shall be made available to the full House of Representatives at least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for third reading and final action in the House of Representatives.

35) (House Rule 38(v)) (1) Except for bills imposing a new or increased cost obligation ~~for health benefit plans on an entity of the state~~ on the State and Public School Life and Health Insurance Program or bills regarding new or existing scholarships to be funded with net proceeds from the state lottery or the Higher Education Grants Fund, failure of the sponsor of a bill or resolution to provide the fiscal impact statement required in this rule shall not prohibit the consideration of it in the committee to which referred or on the floor of the House of Representatives, if no objection to it is made at the time such action is taken.

(2) A bill filed in the House of Representatives that will impose a new or increased cost obligation ~~for health benefit plans, including pharmacy benefits, on an entity of the state~~ on the State and Public School Life and Health Insurance Program shall:

(A) Have a fiscal impact statement attached to the bill prepared and filed with the chair of the committee to which the bill is referred; and

(B) Not be taken up by the committee to which the bill is referred until a fiscal impact statement is provided to the chair of the committee.

(3)(A) Any bill filed with the House of Representatives that creates a new scholarship to be funded with net proceeds from the state lottery or the Higher Education Grants Fund Account, as applicable, or affects an existing scholarship that is funded with net proceeds from the state lottery or the Higher Education Grants Fund Account, as applicable, shall:

(i) Have a lottery fiscal impact statement attached to it that is in the form set forth in Arkansas Code § 6-85-502; and

(ii) Not be taken up by the House Committee on Education and the Senate Committee on Education meeting jointly, until a lottery fiscal impact statement is attached.

 A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO CREATE THE CITIZENS'

 TO REPEAL THE BOARD OF APPORTIONMENT.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS, AND BY THE SENATE, A MAJORITY OF ALL MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE AGREEING THERETO:

THAT the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the state for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon at the election adopt the amendment, the amendment shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to wit:

SECTION 1. TITLE. This amendment shall be known and may be cited as the "Arkansas Citizens' Redistricting Commission Amendment."

SECTION 2. Arkansas Constitution, Article 8, § 1, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1. ~~Board of apportionment created — Powers and duties~~ Citizens' Redistricting Commission created — Membership.

~~A Board to be known as "The Board of Apportionment," consisting of the Governor (who shall be Chairman), the Secretary of State and the Attorney General is hereby created and it shall be its imperative duty to make apportionment of representatives in accordance with the provisions hereof; the action of a majority in each instance shall be deemed the action of said board.~~

(a)(1) There is created the "Citizens' Redistricting Commission", which shall consist of nine (9) commissioners.

(2) The commission shall apportion and redistrict districts for representatives in the United States House of Representatives and representatives and senators in the General Assembly.

(b)(1) The commission shall protect the public trust and discharge the commission's duty under subdivision (a)(2) of this section through a transparent process.

(5) Any person who receives income or reimbursement to directly or indirectly communicate with a commissioner to influence commission action shall publicly disclose that fact before making the communication.

(c)(1) Each commissioner shall be a registered voter of this state.

(2) A person shall not serve or continue to serve as a commissioner if, within the preceding five (5) years, the person or his or her spouse, child, parent, or sibling, by blood or marriage:

(A) Has served as an elected federal, state, county, or municipal official;

(B) Has served as an appointed federal or state official;

(d)(1) No later than December 1 of each year concurrent with the federal decennial census, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall designate a panel of three (3) persons to screen applicants for appointment to the commission.

(2) A vacancy on the panel under subdivision (d)(1) of this section shall be filled by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

(3) In making appointments to the panel, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall consider geographic diversity, racial diversity, and gender diversity.

(6)(A) After the final elimination of applicants under subdivision (f)(5) of this section, the panel shall randomly draw three (3) applicants from those remaining in each pool to serve on the commission, for a total of nine (9) commissioners.

(B) If the random draw under subdivision (f)(6)(A) of this section results in there being any congressional district in which no drawn applicant resides, then the panel shall conduct and repeat the following replacement draws as necessary to result in three (3) commissioners being selected from each of the three (3) pools, with at least one (1) commissioner residing in each congressional district:

(i) The panel shall remove from consideration a randomly selected applicant from the congressional district or districts having the greatest number of drawn applicants; and

(ii) The panel shall randomly draw from the same pool as the applicant removed under subdivision (f)(6)(B)(i) of this section a replacement applicant residing in an unrepresented congressional district.

(C) Notwithstanding this subdivision (f)(6), the panel shall not conduct, or shall cease conducting, replacement draws under subdivision (f)(6)(B) of this section if there are not enough applicants from the unrepresented congressional district or districts to ensure the selection of at least one (1) commissioner from each congressional district.

(7)(A) The panel shall randomly select the commissioners under subdivision (f)(6) of this section no later than May 1 of the year following a federal decennial census.

(B) The panel shall fill any vacancy on the commission by majority decision from the applicants remaining in the pool with the vacancy, maintaining, to the extent possible, representatives from each congressional district.

(B) All other actions of the commission require six (6) or more affirmative votes of the commissioners.

(j)(1) Panelists and commissioners are eligible for:

(A) Reimbursement of expenses reasonably related to the discharge of their duties under subdivision (a)(2) of this section; and

(C) To the extent the commission requires moneys to discharge the commission's duties under subdivision (a)(2) of this section prior to the convening of the legislative session in which the General Assembly can next appropriate moneys, the commission shall be entitled to and shall receive moneys from the Constitutional Officers Fund or its successor fund in amounts necessary to discharge the commission's duties under subdivision (a)(2) of this section until the General Assembly appropriates moneys to the commission.

SECTION 3. Arkansas Constitution, Article 8, § 3, is amended to read as follows:

The Senate shall consist of thirty-five members. Senatorial districts shall at all times consist of contiguous territory, and no county shall be divided in the formation of such districts. ~~“The Board of Apportionment”~~ The Citizens' Redistricting Commission hereby created shall, from time to time, divide the state into convenient senatorial districts in such manner as that the Senate shall be based upon the inhabitants of the state, each senator representing, as nearly as practicable, an equal number thereof; each district shall have at least one senator.

SECTION 4. Arkansas Constitution, Article 8, § 4, is amended to read as follows:

(3) The Secretary of State shall establish multiple methods for the public to provide comments and propose alternate maps for consideration by the commission.

(b)(1) Each congressional district shall have a total population that is as nearly equal as practicable to the total population to the state reported in the most recent federal decennial census divided by the total number of congressional districts to be established.

(2) Each state House of Representatives district and state Senate district shall have a total population that does not vary by more than three percent (3%) from the total population of the state reported in the federal decennial census divided by the total number of state districts to be established for such house of the General Assembly.

(c)(1) The commission shall prepare for public comment three (3) maps for all state districts and three (3) maps for all congressional districts based on the number of inhabitants of the state district or congressional district.

(2) When viewed on a statewide basis, state districts and congressional districts shall not unduly favor or disfavor any political party.

(3) To the extent practicable, the commission shall establish state districts and congressional districts using the following criteria in the following order of descending priority:

(A) State districts and congressional districts shall be contiguous, bounded by an unbroken line, and consist of undivided components that connect at more than a single point;

(B) State districts and congressional districts shall not deny or abridge the right to vote on account of race or language;

(C) State districts and congressional districts shall not divide counties or cities, except to the extent required to satisfy the requirements of subsection (b) of this section or this subdivision (c)(3);

(D) State districts and congressional districts shall be reasonably compact; and

(B) Publicly release for public comment the three (3) maps for all state districts and three (3) maps for all congressional districts at least thirty (30) days before the first hearing.

(2) Revised maps shall be publicly released at least thirty (30) days prior to a final vote on adoption by the commission.

(3) All maps released by the commission, including without limitation revised maps, shall be accompanied by a written report that explains the commission's basis for the state districts and congressional districts.

(e)(1) No later than the November 1 immediately following each federal decennial census, the commission shall reapportion, report, and certify to the Secretary of State the district for each seat in the United States House of Representatives and the General Assembly, setting forth the population, boundaries, and map of each district.

(2) The apportionment shall become effective unless a proceeding for review is filed with the Supreme Court within thirty (30) days of the certification under subdivision (e)(1) of this section, in which case the apportionment shall become effective thirty (30) days after the commission reports and certifies to the Secretary of State any revision necessary to comply with the mandate of the Supreme Court.

SECTION 5. Arkansas Constitution, Article 8, § 5, is amended to read as follows:

~~Original jurisdiction (to be exercised on application of any citizens and taxpayers) is hereby vested in the Supreme Court of the State (a) to compel (by mandamus or otherwise) the board to perform its duties as here directed and (b) to revise any arbitrary action of or abuse of discretion by the board in making such apportionment; provided any such application for revision shall be filed with said Court within 30 days after the filing of the report of apportionment by said board with the Secretary of State; if revised by the court, a certified copy of its judgment shall be by the clerk thereof forthwith transmitted to the Secretary of State, and thereupon be and become a substitute for the apportionment made by the board.~~

The Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction to compel the Chief Justice, the panel to appoint members of the Citizens' Redistricting Commission, the Secretary of State, and the commission by mandamus to perform their respective duties on the application of any citizen and taxpayer.

SECTION 6. REPEAL OF CERTAIN SECTIONS OF ARKANSAS LAW. (a) This amendment specifically supersedes Arkansas Code §§ 7-2-101 — 7-2-105.

(b) The General Assembly shall enact legislation repealing Arkansas Code §§ 7-2-101 — 7-2-105 within one hundred eighty (180) days of the effective date of this amendment.

SECTION 7. SEVERABILITY. The provisions of this amendment are severable, and if any part or provision of this amendment is held invalid by a final decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity of that part or provision shall not affect any other part or provision of this amendment.

(b) The Treasurer of State shall first transfer the excess to the Catastrophic Reserve Fund as necessary under § 5 of this amendment.

(c)(1) The Treasurer of State shall transfer all additional excess revenues to the Budget Stabilization Trust Fund or its successor fund to the extent necessary to ensure that the balance of the Budget Stabilization Trust Fund at the end of the fiscal year is an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the previous fiscal year's expenditures of net general revenue.

Governor Sarah Sanders
State of the State Address
To the 95th General Assembly
January 14, 2025

Governor Sarah Huckabee Sanders delivered remarks to the Joint Session of the 95th General Assembly.

Remarks as prepared for delivery:

Speaker Evans, President Hester, Constitutional Officers, members of the Supreme Court, distinguished Members of the General Assembly, my amazing family, my fellow Arkansans:

It is an honor to join you to kick off another transformational legislative session for the people of Arkansas.

When I took office, I was the youngest Governor in the country and I promised to bring a new generation of leadership. Over the past two years, Arkansas has been the vanguard of a national conservative revolution, which in just six days will put President Trump back in the White House.

But these victories don't mean we can take our foot off the gas. Today, I am here to renew my promise: for a new generation of leadership, for a new path forward for our state, and for a new vision for Arkansas.

When I took office two years ago I was the youngest Governor in the country and as I love to remind my kids, that's still the case! Although my youngest, George, recently heard me say it and replied, "You're the youngest Governor, mom? The rest of them must be really, really old."

Whether you think I'm way too young or really, really old, the results of our first two years speak for themselves: our economy is up, crime is down, education is improving, Arkansas is growing. The State of the State is very strong.

But that doesn't mean there weren't hard moments. One of the most difficult days I've had as Governor came last summer, when a gunman opened fire at the Mad Butcher grocery store in Fordyce and senselessly killed four and severely injured nine innocent Arkansans.

13 Arkansans, 13 lives, 13 everyday heroes that you might find in any small town in our state. But if there is any place to take refuge after a horrible event like that, it is in the words of Sheriff Mike Knoedl:

“This will not define us and it will not divide us.”

That’s true for Fordyce and it’s true for Arkansas. Our state still faces many challenges: the days of incredible pain, like the shooting in Fordyce or the tornadoes that struck our state over Memorial Day weekend; the day-in, day-out issues of struggling schools, too-high crime, hunger, and poverty.

But I have always believed that we are not defined by the problems we face; we are defined by the way we face our problems. With our heads bowed and our eyes to the future, Arkansans can conquer anything.

When I was growing up, my dad never missed an opportunity to tell us that being Governor was the best job he ever had. I remember a few weeks into my time in office, after a particularly tough 48 hours, I called up my dad and asked him: “You know how you always say being Governor is the best job in the world?” He said, “Yes.” And I asked him, “When exactly will that start?”

And in a way only a dad can, my dad said, “Sarah, you haven’t done anything yet. Just wait, and when you least expect it, you’ll get it.”

And he was absolutely right. Not long after that phone call, at my kids’ sports games, at the grocery store, person after person came up to thank me for the job we are doing.

And I understood why it was the best job, because the work we do here makes a real difference in people’s lives.

And no reform comes up more often than LEARNS, which passed by overwhelming margins thanks to the work of our legislators.

I hear from teachers who are now earning $50,000 a year for the first time in their life, or from the lifelong educator who earned thousands of dollars in a merit bonus for the great job she’s doing. And it’s not just the money – it’s feeling recognized for their work.

Or I hear from the parent whose child struggled with reading and is now getting the one-on-one attention he needs because of our high-impact tutoring grants. Or it's from the parent who, seeing news from around the country, is so thankful for the investments we made in school security.

One student I've heard from is Elijah, who recently enrolled in St. Theresa's in Southwest Little Rock. Elijah is here today with Father Stephen Gadberry, whose leadership at that school should be an inspiration to all of us.

St. Theresa's is a Catholic school and many of its students come from Central Arkansas' Hispanic community. Before the LEARNS Act, most families had to scrape and save just to afford the school's modest tuition.

LEARNS flipped that equation on its head. Elijah's parents had sent him to their local public school, but knew they wanted a faith-based, smaller environment that met Elijah's needs. More than that, they wanted a community in which the whole family could be involved.

Elijah's dad is a veteran, so this school year, the family was able to sign up for an EFA account, enroll Elijah in the school, and he is now thriving. His parents are learning too: they go to Bible study over the weekend.

Stories like Elijah's are happening all over the state and starting next school year, Education Freedom Accounts will go universal.

By working together, we have achieved tremendous progress on K-12 schools, but education is a lifelong journey, and in this administration, education reform will be too.

Our Secretary of Education Jacob Oliva often talks about on-ramps and off-ramps – the exit you take when you graduate high school or college; the on-ramp you take when you go back to school to finish a degree or earn a credential.

But for some Arkansans, that's not a strong enough metaphor. For some Arkansans, education is a lifeboat – without it, they'd drown; with it, they can take control of their life's journey.

Tiffany String, who is here today, is one of those people. Tiffany's mom pulled her out of school just a few weeks into the sixth grade. She was married at 17 in her home state of Georgia, and then fourteen years later found herself in Beebe, Arkansas, with her husband and three kids.

Then, Tiffany's life imploded. Her husband walked out on their marriage, leaving her with three kids, hundreds of miles from her closest family, with no job and no car.

Tiffany figured out that Sonic was one of the few places she could go work without a GED. She signed up for government assistance and leaned on friendly neighbors. She found a bike and latched a carriage to the back of it.

She would bike her kids to school, then bike herself to Sonic for work, and on the side, biked herself to school to earn her GED. Once she got that, she continued to work and go to school and earned her nursing degree at Arkansas State University – Beebe.

She now works full-time as a nurse in Searcy. And this May, she is going to graduate with her RN degree and work as a registered nurse.

Throughout it all, her sons – now 15, 12, and 12 – have seen a strength in their mom and what her determination and a good education can do. They prayed over her and have been her biggest cheerleaders.

She pushes education on them constantly: she knows it's the best ticket they have to a better life. You should have seen the smile on her face when her oldest son sent her a picture of the 100 he got on his test. And you should have seen the tears in her eyes when one of her sons looked up at her and said, "Mom, I want to grow up to be like you."

Higher education can be the difference between a life of poverty and a life of success. And it should be available to everyone, no matter their background.

That's why today I am announcing my plan to improve our state's higher education system: Arkansas ACCESS. Together, we will expand Arkansans' access to higher education and non-degree credentials, whether their path comes straight after high school graduation, or many years down the line like Tiffany.

That starts with making applications easier. We will make it so that you submit one application, pay one fee, and can use that same application for any state-supported college or university in our state.

Arkansas students go to our colleges and universities to learn, not to be bombarded with anti-American, historically illiterate, woke nonsense. We will make it so that any professor – tenured or not – that wastes time indoctrinating instead of educating can be terminated from their job.

We will address the skyrocketing cost of higher education by funding college credits while students are still in high school and expanding scholarships to associate's degrees and non-degree credentials.

And we will change our higher education funding model so that it puts state dollars behind all types of degrees: bachelor's, associate's, and non-degree credentials.

For far too long, students were told the lie that the only way to be successful in life is to get a four-year college degree right after high school. When this body passes Arkansas ACCESS, every student, young and old, will know the truth: every Arkansan is unique, and every education journey will be unique too.

The investments we make today in education will have a payoff a long time down the road. In the meantime, Arkansans are struggling with the high costs of groceries, gas, and just about everything else.

The good news is that in just a few days, the reckless tax-and-spend policies of the Biden Administration will be over and we'll have President Donald J. Trump back in the White House.

But our families need relief now. The cost-of-living crisis is what drove my administration to work with our legislators and cut taxes not once, not twice, but three times, lowering our personal income tax rate by a full percentage point.

Our tax rates are quickly dropping, and my administration just released our report on our Arkansas Forward initiative that will save our state at least $300 million – and hopefully more.

The budget I introduced for this year controls spending increases while still making needed investments in priorities like education and maternal health.

The results of these policies have been quick and clear: We've now recorded record-high jobs numbers for nine months in a row. At the end of last year, Arkansas ranked number one in economic growth, number one in inbound movers, and number one for having the lowest cost-of-living.

Thanks to my husband's work on the Natural State Initiative, we're breaking tourism records too. The most recent statistics show that more than 50 million people visited our state in 2023 and spent nearly $10 billion while here.

Despite our progress, we know some Arkansans are still struggling. Last year, I signed Arkansas up for Summer EBT, a program made possible by Arkansas' senior Senator John Boozman. Summer EBT gives $120 over the summer months to parents whose kids receive free and reduced-price lunches during the school year.

We've partnered with groups like the Arkansas Hunger Relief Alliance to sign families up and last summer, we served more than a quarter million Arkansas students through this program.

$120 may not sound like much but it can be life-changing to Arkansas' families. That's why I will work with the legislature to end our most regressive tax, the state Grocery Tax, and ease the burden on families just trying to put food on their tables.

I've already announced that Arkansas will participate in Summer EBT this year. Today, I'm announcing my plan to use Medical Marijuana money to make both this program and our free lunch and breakfast programs financially sustainable for years to come.

We will also use those funds to make school breakfast in Arkansas completely free.

At the same time, it should be easier for all of us to be good neighbors. We've all seen good food go to waste because a restaurant doesn't think it can donate it. If you give food to a food pantry, you shouldn't have to worry about going to court. We will pass the Good Neighbor Act to give liability protection to those who donate food.

SNAP should be focused on healthy, nutritious food. Arkansas will be the first state to seek a SNAP waiver to ensure our neediest families are getting the food they need to stay healthy.

We will also support healthy diets while also supporting Arkansas farms and businesses. I'm introducing the Buy Local Act to encourage our schools to purchase their food in-state.

Educating and feeding our kids will be two of our biggest priorities this session. The third is keeping them safe.

With the help of this body we passed the Protect Act. Violent crime here in Little Rock is down and we are ending the catch-and-early-release of repeat violent offenders. We now have more State Troopers than we've had in a generation and through our new state pay plan, will raise their starting pay by nearly 20%.

Not long ago, my husband and I visited the Pathway to Freedom program at the Wrightsville Unit here in Pulaski County. It was an amazing image: men – many of whom are in prison for violent crimes, tattoos on their arms and faces – with their hands in the air, praising God.

After that visit, I received a letter from one of those inmates, whose clemency petition I had previously denied. In his letter, he thanked me for denying his petition, because that meant he could participate in Pathway to Freedom. He said that because of the program, he will “be a better husband, father, and son.”

Every inmate in Arkansas deserves access to programs like Pathway to Freedom. We will expand and require evidence-based programming in our prisons – but that can’t happen with our chronic prison bed shortage.

That’s why I am glad we have worked to open almost 1,500 prison beds at existing facilities, easing the burden on our county jails. And for the first time since my dad was in office, thanks to our close work with the legislature, we are expanding our prison system with plans for a new, 3,000-bed prison in Franklin County.

But there are other threats to our public safety: modern threats that require modern solutions.

Nowhere is that truer than with our kids. In the past decade across America, suicide rates among teens have tripled, self-harm among girls has risen by nearly 200%, and depression among teenagers has increased by 150%. The culprit is clear: unrestricted access to phones and social media.

With us today is Jennie DeSerio from Centerton who tragically lost her sixteen-year-old son, Mason, to suicide in 2022. It was a complete and total shock to the family: before Mason took his own life, he seemed like a happy, healthy, thriving kid.

He loved football and track and being outside. But in the last few weeks of his life, as a relationship he was in got difficult, Mason started spending more and more time watching TikToks on his phone.

When Mason’s relationship ended, his mental health deteriorated. On the last night of his life, Jennie tried to take his phone away so he could get some undisturbed rest. Mason punched her, something that was a complete 180 from anything he’d ever done before.

Mason's stepfather took the phone away and his parents regrouped for just 13 minutes before realizing Mason had gone up to his room and locked the door. Mason's stepfather raced upstairs and pounded on the door but it was too late: Mason was already gone.

Months later, reeling from grief, Jennie decided to go through Mason's phone. She got on his TikTok and what she saw shocked her: video after video giving step-by-step instructions on how to take his own life.

Jennie says, "I completely believe in my heart that Mason would be alive today had he not seen those TikTok videos."

In Jennie's shoes, so many of us would be lost in our grief. Instead, she has dedicated herself to saving other families from the tragedy she experienced. She is fighting her way through the legal system to hold these abusive social media companies accountable.

Congress and federal courts have failed to step in. But where they have stalled, Arkansas will act.

With the help of this body, we have already taken major strides. We started a phone-free schools pilot program, and three quarters of our school districts voluntarily signed up. In just one district, a phone-free school saw a 57% drop in verbal and physical aggression and a 51% drop in drug-related offenses.

This session, we will ban cell phones in our schools, bell to bell, so that our kids are not distracted, in class or out of it. And we will break the cycle of the mental health crisis facing our kids.

We will update the Social Media Safety Act so that it's no longer held up in court and can begin to be enforced.

And we will give moms like Jennie the right to sue Big Tech companies under state law, so that they can hold bad actors accountable.

Arkansas has led the nation on commonsense, conservative reforms for the past two years and 2025 will be no different.

The good news is that we now have a partner and ally in the White House. I have an amazing relationship with President Trump and he and his administration will have no greater friend than Arkansas.

The President has promised to deal with the crisis on our southern border and fix our broken immigration system. Here in Arkansas, we will pass the Defense Against Criminal Illegals Act to slap enhanced penalties on violent illegal immigrants and remove them from our state.

President Trump was the first President in my lifetime to stand up to China, and Arkansas was the first state in the nation to kick Communist China off our farmland and out of our state.

We will expand that law with the Communist China Defense Act, divesting state resources from Communist China and banning our adversaries from buying land around things like military bases and electric substations.

President Trump will bring law and order back to our country. I like to think we're already pretty tough here in Arkansas, but we will take on the growing problem of squatters by allowing property owners to call the Sheriff's Office to get squatters off their land.

Education, cost-of-living, public safety. Those are the priorities that have defined the first two years of my Administration, and with your help, those are the priorities that will define the next two.

But I am also clear-eyed about the future. I know that government doesn't have a magic wand it can wave to make everything better. To improve we need to be united, in our vision and our actions.

Arkansas is blessed with the greatest asset any state could hope for: good, generous, hard-working, God-fearing people.

At the beginning of my speech, I mentioned the tragic shooting in Fordyce and the four Arkansans we lost that day and the nine who were injured. Those on the scene know that it could have been many, many more were it not for the actions of Dallas County Sheriff Mike Knoedl.

Within minutes after the first shots were fired, Knoedl and his officers were on the scene, returning fire to the gunman. They distracted him, allowing victims to find cover and escape.

Immediately after they apprehended the gunman, Knoedl organized transportation and aid for the wounded. In the days and weeks after, he helped raise tens of thousands of dollars for the families of the victims.

When a tragedy like this happens in small-town Arkansas, it's personal. These victims weren't just citizens in Mike's county; they were his neighbors and friends. He knew them by name. For him to have found the energy and courage to lead his community after this terrible event shows the strength, the courage, and the faith of this great hero.

I meet so many incredible Arkansans traveling around our state, and I believe they deserve more recognition than a mention in a speech or in the newspaper. So today, I am announcing the Arkansas Medal of Freedom, to recognize and honor Arkansans who have distinguished themselves in service to their state and fellow citizens.

I cannot think of a better person to receive the first Medal of Freedom than Sheriff Knoedl. Mike – please join me at the podium so this distinguished chamber and our entire state can recognize you for your bravery and sacrifice.

As Mike exemplifies, Arkansans are the kindest, most hardworking, most generous people on earth. As their public servants, let us walk in their footsteps and live out their example, every day of this legislative session. With the people as our priority and God as our guide, we will build the state our children and grandchildren deserve.

God bless you, and may God bless the great state of Arkansas.

The Joint Session adjourned at 11:35 a.m.

The House reconvened at 11:44 a.m.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1001

BY: REPRESENTATIVE EVANS

Was read the third time and placed on final passage, the question being shall the Resolution be adopted.

HOUSE RESOLUTION
TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF
REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FIFTH
GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Subtitle
TO ADOPT THE RULES OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF
THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL
ASSEMBLY.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

SECTION 1. The Rules of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-Fifth General Assembly of the State of Arkansas are adopted to read as follows:

MEMBERS

1. Every representative shall be present within the House during the session of the House and every member shall be present at each committee meeting of which he or she is a member, unless excused or necessarily prevented. It is the policy of the Arkansas General Assembly, as a term-limited body, to encourage legislators to learn as much as possible by attending meetings of committees of which they are not a member. Prior signed and documented approval must be obtained from the chairperson of a committee for a visiting non-committee member to enjoy certain privileges offered to regular members.
2. For the purpose of seating in the House Chamber for an upcoming regular session of the General Assembly, the Speaker of the House, following the November General Election, shall declare all House Chamber seats vacant and representatives and representatives-elect must select in the order of their seniority any seat not occupied after notification by the Chief Clerk of available seats. Absence or failure to select a seat at the assigned selection time will automatically allow the Speaker to assign the member to his or her same seat if it is available or the member or member-elect to a seat selected by the Speaker. The Chief Clerk shall furnish voting machine and desk keys.

3. When it is necessary for seniority of incoming members to be determined by lot, the Speaker of the House and the Speaker-designate of the House shall conduct a drawing by lots upon receiving certification from the Secretary of State of the election of membership to each General Assembly. Qualified and certified persons to be seated and officially receive the oath of office may do so only at a time and place prescribed by the House. No person having resigned from public office as a provision to a plea agreement to avoid felony prosecution shall be seated or administered the oath of office. Incoming members with previous legislative tenure shall be placed highest in seniority among the incoming members based upon previous terms of service. Where an equivalence of full terms of service exists, seniority for those with equal terms shall be asserted by drawing lots to determine their numerical standing.

4. A majority of all representatives elected to the House shall be necessary to transact business. When less than a quorum of House members shall assemble, those present shall be authorized to send for the absent representatives or adjourn. Penalties may be decided by a majority of the representatives present. (Arkansas Constitution, Article 5, § 11)

5. Each representative is expected to vote on each question put before the House unless he or she has an immediate personal interest.

6. Any representative shall have the right to explain his/her vote on any bill or other question before the House, in writing. Such explanation shall not be entered upon the Journal, but shall be filed with the Chief Clerk.

7. Every bill or resolution in the possession of the House or of any committee thereof shall be made available to any member for his/her examination.

8. No member at any time shall take from the House or any committee any bill or other paper belonging to the House, without consent of the Speaker, subject to the will of the House.

9. It shall be the duty of each representative to know, practice and preserve Parliamentary Law.

THE SPEAKER

10. Selection.

10.(a) As used in this rule, the term “Speaker-designate” shall mean the member of the House of Representatives selected by the House of Representatives of each General Assembly held preceding the convening of the next-following regular session of the General Assembly, in the following manner:

10.(a)(1) A caucus of the entire House of Representatives shall be held fifteen (15) minutes following sine die adjournment of the fiscal session held in each even-numbered year, at which time the members of the House shall select by secret ballot a member of the House to be known as the Speaker-designate. Each candidate for Speaker-designate shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes to address the House before the ballot is taken. All members are required to be present for the addresses and for the election. In the event a member is unable to attend, absentee ballots may be requested by a member for himself/herself from the Speaker's Office no sooner than twenty (20) calendar days prior to the scheduled election and must be completed and returned to the Speaker's Office no later than four p.m. (4:00 p.m.) the day before the scheduled election. It is the intent of the Speaker's office to accommodate any and all members for Speaker-designate voting, should a member have a documented emergency arise, the Speaker may direct staff to allow for absentee voting up to two (2) hours prior to the scheduled election. Leave for absence shall be requested immediately before the time of the election. The Speaker shall announce the name and number of votes received by the candidate who received at least a majority of the votes of the membership of the House. Each candidate shall be entitled to verify the number of votes he or she received.

10.(a)(2) The candidate receiving a majority vote of the membership of the House of Representatives shall be declared the winner of such election for Speaker-designate of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly.

10.(a)(3) If no candidate receives a majority vote of the membership of the House of Representatives, the names of the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be placed on a run-off ballot and distributed among the membership of the House of Representatives in the same manner provided above.

10.(a)(4) If it is determined that the Speaker-designate will not serve as a member of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly due to death, resignation, or failure to be a candidate for or to win reelection, a vacancy in the position of Speaker-designate shall exist and be filled at the caucus of the entire House of Representatives-elect held on the Friday of the week designated for the biennial Institute of Legislative Procedure (House Legislative Orientation), and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be elected upon convening of the next regular session.

10.(a)(5) It is the intent of this subsection that the Speaker-designate be the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the next-following General Assembly, subject to selection by the membership of the House upon convening of the regular session.

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE

19. When a question is under debate, motions shall have precedence in the following order (the request for a quorum call is always in order; the Chairperson is not compelled to accept any motion):

19.(a) To fix the time to which the House will adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(a)(1) (A majority of a quorum is a majority of those voting when at least a majority of the members are present and voting;)

19.(b) To adjourn (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(c) To take a recess (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(d) Postpone temporarily; lay on the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum) To take from the table (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum) (when the motion to take from the table is adopted, the proposition takes the same position it held when the motion to lay on the table was adopted);

19.(e) Immediate consideration (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19.(f) Previous question (non-debatable) (5 seconds) (majority of a quorum);

19.(g) Limit or extend debate (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19.(h) To expunge (debatable) (2/3 of membership) (67);

19.(i) Postpone to a day certain (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(j) Committee of the Whole, go into (non-debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(k) Refer (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(l) Amend (debatable) (majority of a quorum);

19.(m) Postpone indefinitely (debatable) (majority of membership);

19.(n) Take out of proper order (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum);

19.(o) Special order of business (debatable) (2/3 of a quorum); and

19.(p) To suspend the rules (non-debatable) (2/3 of a quorum).

20. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, except when the previous question has been ordered.

21. The motion to recess, when the Floor can be obtained for that purpose, must specify the time which shall elapse and the time for reconvening. It may be amended to alter specific time.

22. Previous question:

22.(a) When any debatable question is before the House, any member may move the previous question. It shall be seconded by five (5) members whether the question shall be stated. When the previous question shall have been adopted, the proponents shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes in which to debate it, and the opponents of the main question shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes, after which time a vote upon the main question shall be taken.

22.(b) Pending a vote on the main question, one (1) motion to refer is permitted. A motion to refer under this rule applies to House resolutions as well as to House bills, to Senate bills and to Senate amendments to a House bill, and to a motion to amend the Journal. The motion to refer under this rule is non-debatable and may not be laid upon the table.

23. A motion to postpone to a day certain may not specify the hour; a special order is necessary to specify the hour; the motion may be amended and it is debatable within narrow limits only, confined to the merit of the motion itself.

24. The simple motion to refer is debatable within its narrow limits, but the merits of the proposition to which it is proposed to refer may not be brought into the debate. The motion to refer with instructions is debatable (majority vote of a quorum). When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill to a committee, the bill may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill to committee, the bill may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill.

24.(a) When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

25. The motion to postpone indefinitely opens to debate all the merits of the proposition to which it is applied. It may not be applied to the motion to refer, or to suspend the rules, or to motions relating to the order of business.

25.(a) The motion for indefinite postponement and possible consideration by a joint interim committee shall be as follows: "Mr. Speaker, I move that consideration of _____ be postponed indefinitely and that consideration be given by the joint interim committee on _____ for a study of _____." (majority of membership).

26. The motion to limit or extend debate must specify time limitations. A substitute motion specifying a lesser time may be accepted.

27. Reconsideration:

27.(a) When a proposition has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member of the majority on the same or succeeding legislative day to move for the reconsideration thereof, or give notice of his or her intentions to do so and such motion shall take precedence over other questions except consideration of a conference report or a motion to adjourn: Provided, the motion or proposition shall only be considered during the period reserved for regular bills. The notice shall not be withdrawn after the said succeeding legislative day without the consent of the House, and thereafter any member may call it up for consideration: Provided, the notice to reconsider must be disposed of within three (3) legislative days following the day the vote was taken; provided, that such notice to reconsider cannot be given after the 57th day of a regular session or during a special session or fiscal session during which times a motion to reconsider must be disposed of immediately.

27.(b) The provisions of the rule that the motion may be made "by any member of the majority" is construed, in case of a tie, to mean the member of the prevailing side, and the same construction applies in the case of a two-thirds (2/3) vote. Where the yeas and nays have not been ordered recorded in the Journal, any member, irrespective of whether he or she voted with the majority or not, may make the motion to reconsider or give notice thereof; but a member who was absent or who was paired in favor of the majority contention and did not vote may not make a motion.

27.(c) A bill in the possession of the House is not considered passed or an amendment agreed to if a motion to reconsider is pending; the effect of the motion being to suspend the original proposition. A notice or motion to reconsider shall not be allowed unless the bill is in the House. A bill shall not leave the House once notice of reconsideration is given. When the motion to reconsider is decided in the affirmative, the question immediately recurs on the motion reconsidered. However, prior to consideration of the question at hand, the Speaker shall have the title, expressing the main contents of the proposition being reconsidered, read to the House. When the motion to reconsider is defeated, a second motion to reconsider may not be made.

27.(d) The motion to reconsider is agreed to by a majority of a quorum, even though the vote reconsidered requires a majority or more of the membership. Upon reconsideration when a proposition has been voted twice and either carried or lost it is considered "Clinched".

27.(e) A notice to reconsider is not debatable. A motion to reconsider is debatable when the item to which it applies is debatable.

27.(f) No bill, petition, memorial, or resolution referred to a committee or reported there-from for recommitment shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider.

27.(g) The "Clincher" motion is two (2) motions in one (1); it is a motion to reconsider and to lay on the table. Having prevailed, the proposition shall not be again considered except by expunging the record. The "Clincher" motion is adopted by a majority of the membership. The Speaker shall accept a "Sound the Ballot" request after the "Clincher" has been adopted and before the next order of business is called.

27.(h) No “Clincher” motion shall be entertained on a bill passed during the morning hour or which has been represented to be non-controversial regardless of when passed. Prior to the 60th day of a session, no bill passed during the morning hour, or a bill appearing on the non-controversial bill calendar which has passed, shall be transmitted to the Senate until the expiration of the morning hour of the day next following its passage in which the House is in session.

28. No dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Speaker.

29. Two-thirds (2/3) of a quorum may suspend the rules, other than rules that require a two-thirds (2/3) or three-fourths (3/4) vote of the membership. Rule 12 of the Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives - Suspension of Joint Rules

30. No standing rule or order shall be revised without one (1) day’s notice being given thereof.

31. In every case not provided for in the House rules, the Speaker, the Parliamentarian, and the members shall be guided by Mason’s Manual of Legislative Procedure. Each member of the Rules Committee may be furnished a copy of the current edition and of each new or revised edition of Mason’s Manual of Legislative Procedure and additional copies may be available to other members from the Parliamentarian, upon approval of the Rules Committee.

The Speaker shall then direct the Clerk to read the bill a second time and assign the bill to committee.

40. Second reading

40.(a) A bill shall be read a second time and the Speaker shall assign the bill to its appropriate committee.

47. Amendments to bills and resolutions:

47.(a) When a bill or resolution is under consideration, amendments shall be in order. Upon adoption, amendments shall become a part of the bill or resolution. Amendments to amendments may not be offered. All amendments offered before the House or one of its committees must be typewritten on an approved amendment form and signed by the sponsor. All amendments shall be attached to the original bill, numbered by the Bill Clerk, and shall be placed physically or electronically upon the members' desks before being acted upon by the House.

47.(b) When a House bill has been amended in the Senate, upon return of said bill to the House, the Speaker shall re-refer the bill, together with the Senate amendment(s), to the committee to which the bill was originally referred, for review. Concurrence in the Senate amendment shall not be considered by the House until the committee report is received by the House. When a House bill is amended and passed by the Senate and is returned to the House, the bill shall be reprinted with the Senate amendments included therein and specifically identified and shall be placed on each member's desk before final action is taken on the bill by the House. When the Senate amendment is before the House, the same number of votes will be required to concur in the Senate amendment as was required in the original passage of the bill in the House. Amendments containing an emergency clause require sixty-seven (67) votes.

47.(c) Fifty-one (51) votes shall be required to adopt a House amendment to a House or Senate bill. When a House bill has been amended in the House, it shall not be acted upon until it has been engrossed and such engrossed bill has been printed and placed on each member's desk.

18) (House Rule 24 part) When a question is raised about the proper referral of a bill or resolution to committee, if the Speaker admits error in the referral of the bill or resolution to a committee, the bill or resolution may be re-referred by a majority vote of a quorum; however, if the Speaker does not admit error in the referral of the bill or resolution to committee, the bill or resolution may only be re-referred by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum. When a bill or resolution is re-referred to a committee, any previous committee recommendation is automatically stripped from the bill or resolution. When a motion is under consideration, only two (2) substitutes to that motion shall be in order. Only a motion applicable to the main motion and of a higher precedence upon recognition may be substituted for the motion under consideration. A substitute to the third degree shall not be in order. Unless specified otherwise by the presenter of the motion at the time the motion is made, a substitute motion shall apply to the main motion.

19) (House Rule 55 (a)) House Committee Staff will automatically and without delay place all bills or resolutions referred to the committees on the committee agendas. Staff will notify the sponsor of bills or resolutions assigned to committee. Referred bills shall be placed on the committee's active agenda in the order they are read across the desk on the House Floor. A bill shall not be placed on a committee agenda until the second calendar day following the initial filing of the bill. When an active agenda is established in a committee and bills from that agenda are not placed on the deferred list and if the bills are passed over, they are placed at the bottom of the list of the day's active agenda.

20) After a bill or resolution has appeared on the committee agenda and has been called up for consideration by the committee and the sponsor of the bill or resolution or a representative is not present to present the bill or resolution, the bill or resolution will be placed on the active agenda two (2) additional times, but will be placed at the bottom of the active agenda.

21) The sponsor may request a bill or resolution be moved to a deferred list of bills and resolutions. A bill or resolution passed over after appearing on three (3) committee agendas shall be moved to the deferred list. Sponsor requests to move bills or resolutions from the deferred list to the active agenda must be made by 2:30 p.m. two (2) days prior to the scheduled committee meeting. Bills or resolutions moved from the deferred list to the active agenda shall be listed at the bottom of the active agenda. Bills or resolutions on the deferred list may be moved to the active calendar as provided by rule for a total of three (3) times only. A suspension of this rule by the committee (two-thirds of a quorum) will be required for each transfer of any bill or resolution having been moved three (3) times previously.

22) Bills or resolutions suggested as non-controversial will be considered before consideration of controversial bills or resolutions on the agenda. The objection of one (1) committee member to the consideration of a bill or resolution as non-controversial will automatically keep the bill or resolution from being considered as being non-controversial. Even though a bill or resolution has been considered as non-controversial, it will be necessary after a "do pass" or "do pass as amended" recommendation that a motion be made and there be unanimous consent of no less than a quorum of the committee for a bill or resolution to be eligible to be placed on the House non-controversial calendar.

23) If a bill or resolution is discussed by a committee at a meeting, but is not voted on because of time limitations or because the vote is deferred to the next meeting, the bill or resolution will not lose its order on the agenda and will not be counted as having been considered.

24) The author/sponsor of a bill or resolution may make a presentation for his or her bill or resolution and may elect at that time to respond to questions from the committee members. Following the initial presentation, non-legislative--non-committee members will be allowed to alternately speak against and for the bill or resolution. A procedural motion made by a member of the committee and adopted by the committee to limit or end debate will be allowed to govern non-legislative--non-committee members' discussions. At the conclusion of the non-legislative--non-committee member proponent and opponent presentations, the sponsor may return to the podium and may elect to field questions from the committee members. Those questions should be limited to requests for clarification or the securing of information. Questions that are rhetorically offered and are dilatory for the effect of debate are discouraged. At this point, the chair will entertain motions from committee members only. For disposition of a proposition in a House Committee, procedural motions (limit debate, immediate consideration, etc.) are allowed only following a main motion (do pass, do not pass, do pass as amended, etc.). Discussion from that point forward is limited to committee members for and against the motion, if debatable, in alternating fashion. If immediate consideration is not adopted and if debate has not been limited and time has not expired, the sponsor of the motion will be allowed to close for his or her motion. During the closing, the sponsor of the motion may elect to field questions from committee members. At the conclusion of these presentations, a vote will be taken on the motion properly before the committee.

25) As determined by the presider courtesy may be extended to General Assembly members who are non-committee members who need to return to their own committee meetings.

26) (House Rule 66) Eleven (11) members of a standing committee constitute a committee quorum with the Speaker present if he or she is a member of the committee and ten (10) members when the Speaker is not present. A committee recommendation of a bill or resolution will require these same numbers.

27) Smoking is prohibited in the committee rooms and all adjoining rooms.

28) (House Rule 69(a)(5)) A roll call vote will be required if requested by any two (2) committee members, except for a quorum call which may be requested by one (1) member. The request for a quorum call is always in order.

29) When a roll call is required, the roll will be called by seniority with the vice chairperson being called next to last and the chairperson last. For a member's vote to be counted and recorded, he or she must vote "yes", "no" or "present".

30) During a roll call vote, when a member's name has been called twice and he or she does not respond, or when a member passes, they will not be allowed to vote at a later time on the current issue before the committee.

31) No seconds are required during the legislative process except those that are explicit in the rules, (roll call, previous question, sound the ballot, etc.)

32) (House Rule 38(r)) "Fiscal impact statement" means a realistic statement of the estimated financial cost of implementing or complying with a proposed law regarding:

- (1) Municipalities;
- (2) Counties;
- (3) Education, as related to the State of Arkansas and local school districts grades kindergarten through twelve (K-12);
- (4) Corrections, if imposing new or additional costs and restrictions on inmate population patterns or affecting programs or services of the Department of Correction;
- (5) Lottery, if amending Arkansas Code, Title 23, Chapter 115, or imposing a new or increased cost to the Office of the Arkansas Lottery or a lottery;
- (6) ~~Health benefit plans, if imposing a new or increased cost obligation for health benefit plans, including pharmacy benefits, on an entity of the state~~ Imposing a new or increased cost on the State and Public School Life and Health Insurance Program; or
- (7) New or existing scholarships to be funded with net proceeds from the state lottery or the Higher Education Grants Fund Account, as applicable_.

33) (House Rule 38(s)) When any House or Senate bill or resolution requiring an expenditure of public funds or otherwise imposing a new or increased cost obligation is pending before any committee of the House of Representatives, any member of the committee may request that a fiscal impact statement for such bill or resolution be placed on the desk of each member of the committee before the bill or resolution is called up for final action in the committee. If such request is made, the chairperson of the committee shall refer the bill or resolution to the appropriate state agency or to the legislative staff for the preparation of a fiscal impact statement, to be returned to the committee in writing not later than five (5) days from the date of the request.

34) (House Rule 38(u)) Fiscal impact statements shall be made available to House Committees:

- (1) At least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for final action in the House Committee during a regular legislative session or fiscal session of the General Assembly; and

(2) At least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for final action in the House Committee during a special session of the General Assembly.

Fiscal impact statements shall be made available to the full House of Representatives at least one (1) day before the bill may be called up for third reading and final action in the House of Representatives.

35) (House Rule 38(v)) (1) Except for bills imposing a new or increased cost obligation ~~for health benefit plans on an entity of the state~~ on the State and Public School Life and Health Insurance Program or bills regarding new or existing scholarships to be funded with net proceeds from the state lottery or the Higher Education Grants Fund, failure of the sponsor of a bill or resolution to provide the fiscal impact statement required in this rule shall not prohibit the consideration of it in the committee to which referred or on the floor of the House of Representatives, if no objection to it is made at the time such action is taken.

(2) A bill filed in the House of Representatives that will impose a new or increased cost obligation ~~for health benefit plans, including pharmacy benefits, on an entity of the state~~ on the State and Public School Life and Health Insurance Program shall:

(A) Have a fiscal impact statement attached to the bill prepared and filed with the chair of the committee to which the bill is referred; and

(B) Not be taken up by the committee to which the bill is referred until a fiscal impact statement is provided to the chair of the committee.

(3)(A) Any bill filed with the House of Representatives that creates a new scholarship to be funded with net proceeds from the state lottery or the Higher Education Grants Fund Account, as applicable, or affects an existing scholarship that is funded with net proceeds from the state lottery or the Higher Education Grants Fund Account, as applicable, shall:

(i) Have a lottery fiscal impact statement attached to it that is in the form set forth in Arkansas Code § 6-85-502; and

(ii) Not be taken up by the House Committee on Education and the Senate Committee on Education meeting jointly, until a lottery fiscal impact statement is attached.

BY: SENATOR HESTER
BY: REPRESENTATIVE EVANS

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION
TO ADOPT THE JOINT RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Subtitle
TO ADOPT THE JOINT RULES OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND
THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIFTH
GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
CONCURRING THEREIN:

SECTION 1. The Joint Rules of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Ninety-Fifth General Assembly are adopted to read as follows:

JOINT RULES
OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND THE SENATE

95th General Assembly

Joint Session - How Convened

Section 1. When, by the Constitution or laws of the state, a joint meeting of the Senate and House of Representatives is required, they shall assemble with their clerks on the day and at the hour previously agreed on for that purpose in the hall of the House of Representatives.

Officers of Joint Session

Section 2. When the meeting is assembled, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House shall preside in conjunction, and the meeting shall be governed by such standing rules as shall have been adopted for that purpose by the concurrence of both houses. They shall have power to punish any person, other than a member, for disorderly or contemptuous behavior in their presence, by fine and imprisonment, in the same manner and to the same extent as either house may do, for like conduct before it, by the Constitution and laws of this state.

(A) Any member of either house who shall be guilty of disorderly behavior in the presence of the meeting may be punished by the house of which he or she is a member, in the same manner as if the offense had been committed in the presence of that house.

(B) The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House shall both keep records of the proceedings, to be entered on the Journal of their respective houses.

Manner of Presenting Bills, Etc.

Section 3. All bills, resolutions, votes and amendments by either house, to which the concurrence of both is necessary, as well as messages, shall be presented to the other by the Clerk or Secretary of the house from which they are sent or by the assistant secretary or assistant clerk.

Contents of Bills

Section 4. No bill or resolution shall be passed by either house containing more than one subject, which shall be expressed in the title. House bills and resolutions shall have at least one House sponsor, and Senate bills and resolutions shall have at least one Senate Sponsor. House bills, House concurrent resolutions, and House joint resolutions may have Senate sponsors, and Senate bills, Senate concurrent resolutions, and Senate joint resolutions may have House sponsors.

Notice of Bill Rejection

Section 5. When a bill or resolution which has passed one house shall be rejected by the other, notice thereof shall be given to the house in which the same shall have passed.

Engrossment of Bills

Section 6. After adoption of an amendment on the floor of the Senate, regardless whether the bill or resolution originated in the House or the Senate, the Senate shall engross the bill or resolution as amended. After the adoption of the amendment on the floor of the House of Representatives, regardless whether the bill or resolution originated in the House or the Senate, the House of Representatives shall engross the bill or resolution as amended.

This rule may be waived by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate or in his or her absence the Chairman of Senate Rules Committee, or the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Enrollment of Bills

Section 7. When a bill shall have passed both houses, it shall be enrolled by the enrolling clerk of the house in which it originated.

Section 8. All bills must be enrolled and reported to each house by the committee designated by each house to supervise the enrolling of bills, within three (3) days after their passage; provided, that if the reconsideration of any bill is moved, in either house, previous to its presentation to the Governor, the committee shall hold the same until action is taken upon such motion.

Section 9. No bill, resolution, or memorial shall be sent to the Governor for his or her approval, unless the same shall have been clearly and fairly enrolled without obliteration or interlineation.

Signing of Bills

Section 10. After examination and report by the committee responsible for enrolling bills, each bill shall be signed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and by the President of the Senate. Each page of a bill shall be signed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives on the right margin, and shall be signed by the President of the Senate on the left margin of each page. The Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate shall manually sign each page of each bill, or may provide, at their option and under their supervision, for the affixing thereto of their facsimile signature.

Conference Committee

Section 11. When either body shall request a conference, and appoint a committee for that purpose, the other body shall also appoint a committee of equal number to confer, and such conference shall be held at any time and place agreed upon by the Chairpersons.

Suspension of Joint Rules

Section 12. No joint rules shall be dispensed with but by a concurrent vote of two-thirds (2/3) of each house, and if either house shall violate a joint rule, the question of order may be raised in the other house, and decided in the same manner as in case of a violation of the rules of such house.

Appropriation Bills

Section 13. The general appropriation bill, and all appropriation bills recommended "do pass" by the Joint Budget Committee, shall be privileged bills advanced upon the calendar, and take precedence over all other bills at any time after the reading of the Journal. It shall be in order, by the direction of the appropriate committee, to move that the House or Senate (as the case may be) resolve itself into the committee of the whole house for the purpose of considering the general appropriation bill, and no dilatory motion shall be entertained by the presiding officer.

SECTION 1. Intent.

The intent of this amendment is to amend Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 79, and other provisions of the Arkansas Constitution related to property taxes to empower the people of Arkansas to control increases in their own real property taxes and to secure real property tax assessments at the current value of the real property unless a substantial change to the real property occurs.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 79, §§ 1 and 2, are amended to read as follows:

§ 1. [Assessing value of real property].

In each year thereafter the assessed value shall increase by an additional ten percent (10%) of the assessed value of the parcel for the year prior to the first assessment that resulted from reappraisal but shall not exceed the assessed value determined by the reappraisal prior to adjustment under this subsection. For utility and carrier real property, any annual increase in the assessed value of the parcel shall be limited to not more than ten percent (10%) of the assessed value for the previous year.~~

In each year thereafter the assessed value shall increase by an additional five percent (5%) of the assessed value of the parcel for the year prior to the first assessment that resulted from reappraisal but shall not exceed the assessed value determined by the reappraisal prior to adjustment under this~~ subsection.

~~(2) This subsection (c) does not apply to newly discovered real property, new construction, or to substantial improvements to real property.~~

~~(d)(1)(A) A homestead used as the taxpayer's principal place of residence purchased or constructed on or after January 1, 2001 by a disabled person or by a person sixty-five (65) years of age or older shall be assessed thereafter based on the lower of the assessed value as of the date of purchase or construction or a later assessed value.~~

~~(B) When a person becomes disabled or reaches sixty-five (65) years of age on or after January 1, 2001, that person's homestead used as the taxpayer's principal place of residence shall thereafter be assessed based on the lower of the assessed value on the person's sixty-fifth birthday, on the date the person becomes disabled or a later assessed value.~~

~~(C) If a person is disabled or is at least sixty-five (65) years of age and owns a homestead used as the taxpayer's principal place of residence on January 1, 2001, the homestead shall be assessed based on the lower of the assessed value on January 1, 2001 or a later assessed value.~~

~~(2) Residing in a nursing home shall not disqualify a person from the benefits of this subsection (d).~~

~~(3) In instances of joint ownership, if one of the owners qualifies under this subsection (d), all owners shall receive the benefits of this amendment.~~

~~(4) This subsection (d) does not apply to substantial improvements to real property.~~

~~(5) For real property that is subject to Section 2 of this Amendment in lieu of January 1, 2001, the applicable date for this subsection (d) shall be January 1 of the year following the completion of the adjustments to assessed value required by Section 2.~~

(a) The assessed value of real property shall be the assessed value determined at the most recent previous assessment of the real property on or before December 31, 2026, not including any future increases that would have been implemented as the result of a previous county-wide reappraisal, except that:

(1) For real property that is sold, transferred, assigned, or otherwise conveyed on or after January 1, 2027, the assessed value of the real property shall be based on the value of the real property at the time the real property was sold, transferred, assigned, or otherwise conveyed to the taxpayer;

(2) For real property that includes new construction or substantial improvements that were completed on or after January 1, 2027, the assessed value of the real property shall be based on the value of the real property including the new construction or substantial improvements; and

(3) If the use of the real property changes, the assessed value of the real property shall be based on the value of the real property according to the real property's new use, as provided in Article 16, § 15.

(b) The General Assembly shall provide by law for procedures to be followed in adjusting the assessed value of real property, including without limitation procedures for reappraising and reassessing real property as required under this amendment.

(c) This amendment does not affect the ability of a county assessor or other official designated by law to carry out any other duties under this Constitution or under Arkansas law.

~~§ 2. [Effect of county-wide reappraisal — Public utility and carrier exception].~~

~~(a)(1) Section 1 of this Amendment shall not be applicable to a county in which there has been no county-wide reappraisal, as defined by law, and resulting assessed value of property between January 1, 1986 and December 31, 2000. Real property in such a county shall be adjusted according to the provisions of this section.~~

~~(2) Upon the completion of the adjustments to assessed value required by this section each taxpayer of that county shall be entitled to apply the provision of Section 1 of this Amendment to the real property owned by them.~~

~~(b) The county assessor, or other official or officials designated by law, shall compare the assessed value of each parcel of real property to the prior year's assessed value. If assessed value of the parcel increased, then the assessed value of the parcel for the first assessment resulting from reappraisal shall be adjusted by adding one third ( $\frac{1}{3}$ ) of the increase to the assessed value of the parcel for the previous year. An additional one third ( $\frac{1}{3}$ ) of the increase shall be added in each of the next two (2) years. This adjustment procedure shall not apply to public utility and carrier property. Public utility and carrier property shall be adjusted pursuant to Section 1.~~

~~(c) No adjustment shall be made for newly discovered real property, new construction, or to substantial improvements to real property.~~

SECTION 3. Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 79, § 4, is amended to read as follows:

§ 4. [Income adjustments — Personal property millage rate — Uniform property tax rate requirement — ~~Reassessment — Rollback adjustments~~].

(a) The General Assembly shall, by law, provide for procedures to be followed with respect to adjusting ad valorem taxes or millage pledged for bonded indebtedness purposes, to assure that the tax or millage levied for bonded indebtedness purposes will, at all times, provide a level of income sufficient to meet the current requirements of all principal, interest, paying agent fees, reserves, and other requirements of the bond indenture.

(b) The millage rate levied against taxable personal property and utility and regulated carrier property in each taxing unit in the state shall be equal to the millage rate levied against real property in each taxing unit in the state. Personal property millage rates currently not equal to real estate millage rates shall be reduced to the level of the real estate millage rate; except to the extent necessary to provide a level of income sufficient to meet the current requirements of all principal, interest, paying agent fees, reserves, and other requirements of the bond indenture.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not affect or repeal the required uniform rate of ad valorem property tax set forth in Amendment 74.

(d) The General Assembly ~~may~~ shall, by law, prescribe the method and means for reassessing real property and establish the frequency of reassessment. ~~However, reassessment shall occur at least once every five (5) years.~~

~~(e) Rollback adjustments under Article 16, Section 14 shall be determined after the adjustments are made to assessed value under this Amendment.~~

SECTION 4. Arkansas Constitution, Article 16, § 14, is repealed.

~~§ 14. Procedure for adjustment of taxes after reappraisal or reassessment of property.~~

~~(a) Whenever a countywide reappraisal or reassessment of property subject to ad valorem taxes made in accordance with procedures established by the General Assembly shall result in an increase in the aggregate value of taxable real and personal property in any taxing unit in this State of ten percent (10%) or more over the previous year the rate of city or town, county, school district, and community college district taxes levied against the taxable real and personal property of each such taxing unit shall, upon completion of such reappraisal or reassessment, be adjusted or rolled back, by the governing body of the taxing unit, for the year for which levied as provided below. The General Assembly shall, by law, establish the procedures to be followed by a county in making a countywide reappraisal or reassessment of property which will, upon completion, authorize the adjustment or rollback of property tax rates or millage, as authorized hereinabove. The adjustment or rollback of tax rates or millage for the "base year" as hereinafter defined shall be designed to assure that each taxing unit will receive an amount of tax revenue from each tax source no greater than ten percent (10%) above the revenues received during the previous year from each such tax source, adjusted for any lawful tax or millage rate increase or reduction imposed in the manner provided by law for the year for which the tax adjustment or rollback is to be made, and after making the following~~ additional adjustments:

~~(i) by excluding from such calculation the assessed value of, and taxes derived from, tangible personal property assessed in the taxing unit, and all real and tangible personal property of public utilities and regulated carriers assessed in the taxing unit, and~~

~~(ii) by computing the adjusted or rollback millage rates on the basis of the reassessed taxable real property for the base year that will produce an amount of revenue no greater than ten percent (10%) above the revenues produced from the assessed value of real property in the taxing unit (after making the aforementioned adjustments for personal properties and properties of public utilities and regulated carriers noted above) from millage rates in effect in the taxing unit during the base year in which the millage adjustment or rollback is to be calculated. Provided, further, that in calculating the amount of adjusted or rollback millage necessary to produce tax revenues no greater than ten percent (10%) above the revenues received during the previous year, the governing body shall separate from the assessed value of taxable real property of the taxing unit, newly discovered real property and new construction and improvements to real property, after making the adjustments for personal property or property of public utilities and regulated carriers noted above, and shall compute the millage necessary to produce an amount of revenues equal to, but no greater than the base year revenues of the taxing unit from each millage source. Such taxing unit may elect either to obtain an increase in revenues equal to the amount of revenues that the computed or adjusted rollback millage will produce from newly discovered real property and new construction and improvements to real property, or if the same be less than ten percent (10%), the governing body of the taxing unit may recompute the millage rate to be charged to produce an amount no greater than ten percent (10%) above the revenues collected for taxable real property during the base year.~~

~~Provided, however, that the amount of revenues to be derived from taxable personal property assessed in the taxing unit for the base year, other than personal property taxes to be paid by public utilities and regulated carriers in the manner provided hereinabove, shall be computed at the millage necessary to produce the same dollar amount of revenues derived during the current year in which the base year adjustment or rollback of millage is computed, and the millage necessary to produce the amount of revenues received from personal property taxes received by the taxing unit, for the base year shall be reduced annually as the assessed value of taxable personal property increases until the amount of revenues from personal property taxes, computed on the basis of the current year millage rates~~

~~will produce an amount of revenues from taxable personal property equal to or greater than received during the base year, and thereafter the millage rates for computing personal property taxes shall be the millage rates levied for the current year.~~

~~Provided, however, that the taxes to be paid by public utilities and regulated carriers in the respective taxing units of the several counties of this State during the first five (5) calendar years in which taxes are levied on the taxable real and personal property as reassessed and equalized in each of the respective counties as a part of a statewide reappraisal program, shall be the greater of the following:~~

~~(1) the amount of taxes paid on property owned by such public utilities or regulated carriers in or assigned to such taxing unit, less adjustments for properties disposed of or reductions in the assessed valuation of such properties in the base year as defined below, or~~

~~(2) the amount of taxes due on the assessed valuation of taxable real and tangible personal property belonging to the public utilities or regulated carriers located in or assigned to the taxing unit in each county at millage rates levied for the current year.~~

~~As used herein, the term "base year" shall mean the year in which a county completes reassessment and equalization of taxable real and personal property as a part of a statewide reappraisal program, and extends the adjusted or rolled back millage rates for the first time, as provided in subsection (a) of this Section, for the respective taxing units in such county for collection in the following year.~~

~~(i) in the event the amount of taxes paid the taxing unit in a county in the base year, as defined herein, is greater than the taxes due to be paid to such taxing unit for the current year of any year of the second (2nd) period of five (5) years after the base year, the difference between the base year taxes and the current year taxes for any year of such five (5) year period shall be adjusted as follows:~~

|--|--|
| Current year of second period of (5) years | Taxes shall be current yeartaxes to which shall be addedthe following percentage ofthe difference between thecurrent year taxes and thebase year taxes (if greaterthan current year taxes) |
| 1st year                                   | 80% of difference  |
| 2nd year                                   | 60% of difference  |

|                         |                           |
|-------------------------|---------------------------|
| 3rd year                | 40% of difference         |
| 4th year                | 20% of difference         |
| 5th year and thereafter | Current years taxes only. |

~~(ii) if the current year taxes of a public utility or regulated carrier equal or exceed the base years taxes due a taxing unit during any year of the first ten (10) years after the base year, the amount of taxes to be paid to such taxing unit shall thereafter be the current years taxes and the adjustment authorized herein shall no longer apply in computing taxes to be paid to such taxing unit.~~

~~Provided, that in the event the aforementioned requirement for payment of taxes by public utilities and regulated carriers, or any class of utilities or carriers for the ten (10) year period noted above, shall be held by court decision to be contrary to the constitution or statutes of this State or of the Federal Government, the General Assembly may provide for other utilities or classes of carriers to receive the same treatment provided or required under the court order, if deemed necessary to promote equity between similar utilities or classes of carriers.~~

~~(b) The General Assembly shall, by law, provide for procedures to be followed with respect to adjusting ad valorem taxes or millage pledged for bonded indebtedness purposes, to assure that the adjusted or rolled back rate of tax or millage levied for bonded indebtedness purposes will, at all times, provide a level of income sufficient to meet the current requirements of all principal, interest, paying agent fees, reserves, and other requirements of the bond indenture. [Added by Const. Amend. 59.]~~

SECTION 5. EFFECTIVE DATE. This amendment shall be effective for assessment years beginning on and after January 1, 2027.

SECTION 6. BALLOT TITLE AND POPULAR NAME. When this proposed amendment is submitted to the electors of this state on the general election ballot:

- (1) The title of this Joint Resolution shall be the ballot title; and
- (2) The popular name shall be "An Amendment to the Arkansas Constitution to Repeal Provisions Concerning the Reappraisal and Reassessment of Real Property and to Amend Arkansas Constitution, Amendment 79, to Provide that the Assessed Value of Real Property Shall Be Fixed Unless the Real Property Is Conveyed, Newly Constructed, or Substantially Improved or the Use of the Real Property Changes.".
